LOG LINE: A father moves his family to the “Wild Wild West of Weed” Oklahoma USA, turning his hard-earned green into Ganja Gold while steering clear of the riffraff and raising his family where the grass and the greed are as high as an elephant’s eye.

What is a reality film series? A new hybrid genre of entertainment.

Part film, part un-scripted, all reality!

We take reality story telling to a new level of production. Our cinematic scenes move our reality stories forward. Everything is real but enhanced by using homages to classic TV and Film scenes when applicable. We’ll have the audience saying “that looks like ... !”

BEHIND THE SCENES

THE FACILITY

The KANNABIZ MONKEEZ facility includes state of the art equipment with “CHANEL” treatment to the weed. Our lab equipment is the best into turning that sticky green into glowing gold.

We are the first grow facility to have AI engineered robotics for cultivation. 24 ft ceilings, shiny glass walls, tasting rooms, smoke lounge, when buyers come in, it's like a disco on a Saturday night.

Matty-B is the MacGyver of marijuana, and by using better than organic cultivation, he's giving us the perfect plant every time, showing the world how to grow the most awesome weed ever!

THE MARKET

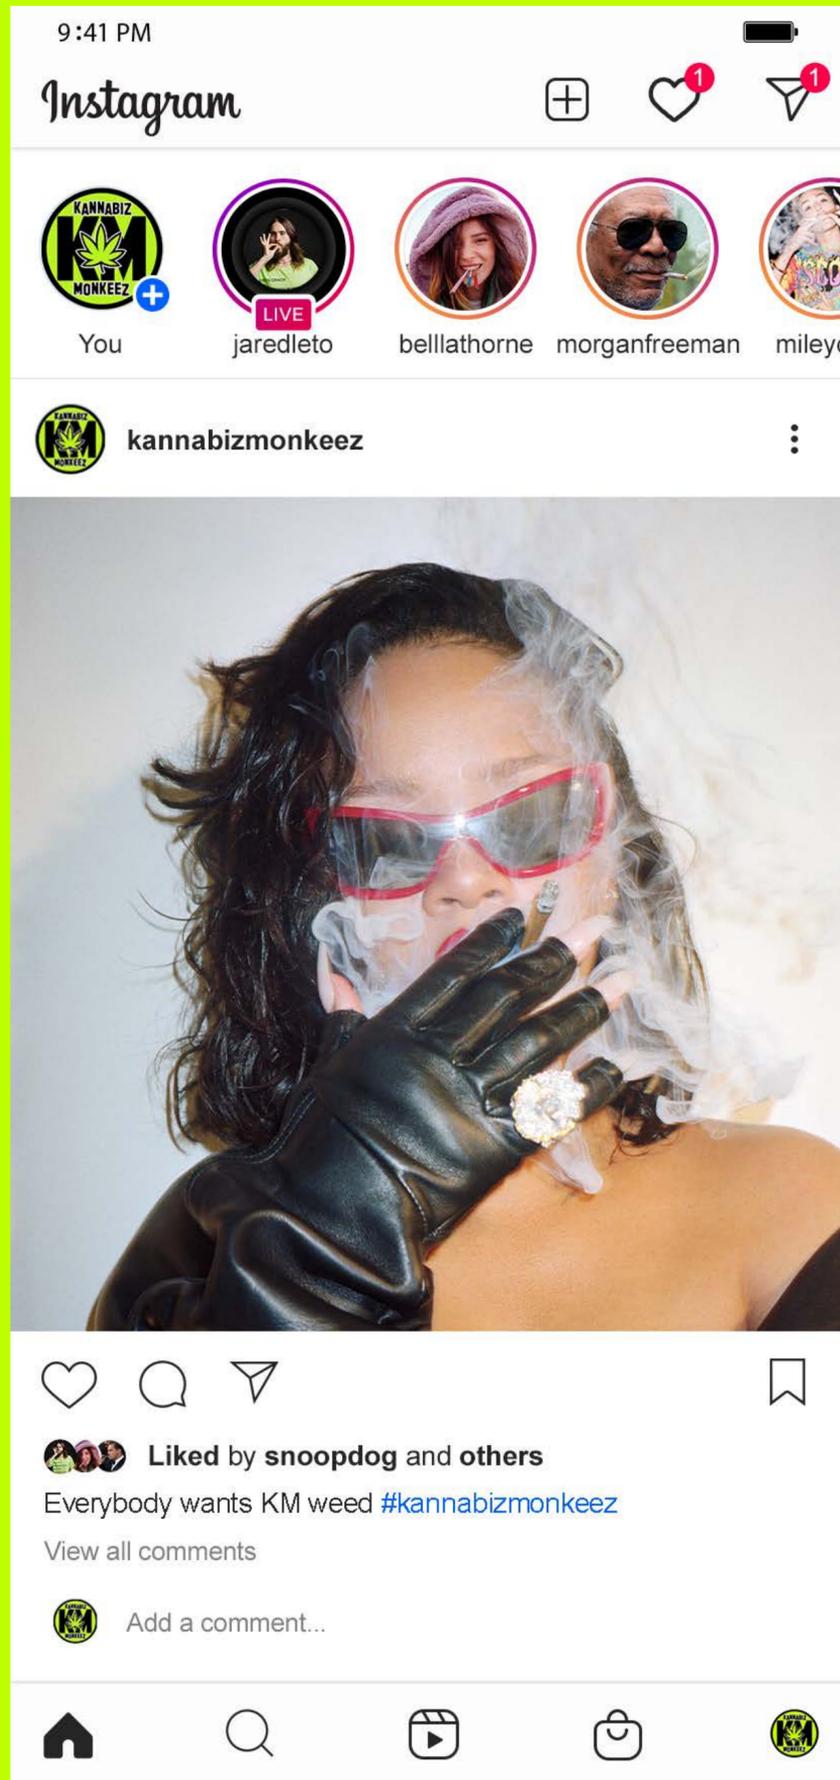

FUCK hemp, FUCK CBD, we deal drugs . . . LEGALLY.

There are over 150 million + people in the U.S. who have admitted to smoking weed or smoke on a regular basis. 49.9% of adults in the U.S., nearly half of the U.S. population say they smoke weed recreationally, up 45% from 2017-2019. Just over 50 years ago, only 4% of the adult population said they had tried smoking.

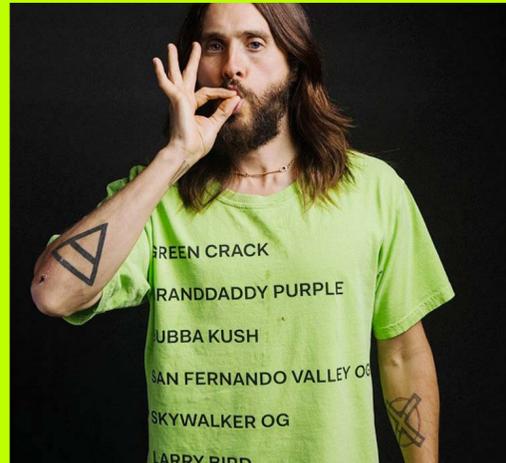

According to the U.S. government estimates, domestic marijuana production has increased over the last 40 years from 2.2 million pounds in 1981 to 48.2 million pounds in 2022.

TOKELAHOMA follows the KANNABIZ MONKEEZ team, home to 14,000 sq ft. of greenhouse, 10,000 sq ft. of indoor, 5,000 sq ft. of processing labs, and 20 acres of outdoor to produce the highest quality of cannabis in any conditions.

THE FEDS

August 15, 2022

Currently in the news are the enforcement agencies which are going after illegal growers in a big way. We will have multiple side story lines that will explore that side of the business as well.

While the States are individually approving and licensing grow and use facilities, weed is still ‘illegal’ per the federal government which creates other challenges for the team.

The unsavory part of this booming industry is as always where there is money that are elements that are very interested and not on the right side of the law. Oklahoma alone has issued the most licenses than most of the country combined! That leaves a lot of “grey areas.”

From the Cartel to the Triads, they are both always sniffing around. The black market is unchecked in Oklahoma. Our team stays on the right side of the law but this added pressure is something that is always looming . . .

FUTURE EPISODES

Episode 1 The Drug Game

We meet PAULIEWOOD (PW), Matt, and the KANNABIZ MONKEEZ farm and facilities. KATYWOOD manages the kids (and PW). We learn PW needs to close a deal with Shannon, a much larger farm owner; if PW does not come into a partnership with Shannon, KANNABIZ MONKEEZ won't be able to stay open much longer. Grove bags company sends their top guys to try and persuade PW into a deal.

Episode 2 The Exorcist

We focus on the farm crew who handles the growing. We introduce Craig and other farmhands. We meet our top salesman Eddie Lopez, guess what? Eddie needs an exorcism after his wife learns he's been taking care of an Oklahoma stripper! Will the exorcism save his marriage? We meet Weed Bae aka Jessie; why is Weed Bae in Oklahoma anyway? We find out. More insight on KATYWOOD's home life with managing the kids. Is she happy? We explore PW and KATYWOOD's 'why'!?

Episode 3 Play Misty for Me

We learn more about the devastating attack Misty suffered 20 years ago which shaped her life. She was tragically sexually assaulted and left for dead in the trunk of a car, yes all true. We learn from PW, the challenges that farming cannabis in OK presents: The lab, bugs, wildlife, weather, etc. Misty tries hard but she is PW's trainwreck. What are the consequences?

Episode 4 La Familia

More fun with KATYWOOD. As PW is working with his team on the farm, KATYWOOD is working with her team at home aka the kids! She needs help! KATYWOOD interviews nannies, and homeschooling mentors. Guess what? OK is not LA and the help she needs is not so readily available.

Episode 5 The Shmata Business

We meet JC who runs the KANNABIZ MONKEEZ apparel business. (JC is also our number 3 in command) He helped create an artist/designer incubator to empower artists and get them seen and make money. We also meet 'Capt D,' a retired Army medical officer. Her reason for being with KANNABIZ MONKEEZ is to help veterans suffering from PTSD using cannabis in various forms. She's a Philadelphia firecracker, a straight-talking mother of 5!

Episode 6 Breaking Bae

Meet our own Walter White, our MacGyver. Also known as 'Juicy Jae,' he is the farm's food chef as well as one of the top 'cooks' in the cannabis world. Weed Bae, makes all of the edibles for KANNABIZ MONKEEZ. We see his cooking process and how this is an artform not just cooking.

Episode 7 Narcos Doc

This is our documentary/Sicario-style episode. We have fun with our legal grow facility. Faces are covered! Voices are muffled and or distorted! The crew is transported in a van with sacks over their heads! etc. (We never break episode character.) From the very beginning to the very end it's presented as a real Narcos-documentary, but with our crew instead!

Episode 8 La Novela

We meet the 'new' sales girl. Great hire and new competition for Eddie and the rest of the team. We check in on PW and KATYWOOD at home to see how they are doing. This is shot and sequenced like a Spanish telenovela! Yes, KATYWOOD goes full latina dramatic! Where are they at with any work/life balance? Farm life - is it working? Are they here for the long haul? We hope and pray PW survives this episode!

Episode 9 Happy Halloweed

We celebrate the Halloween season, TOKELAHOMA style! Trick or treat with the babies! The farm workers are all in costumes, party party party but where is Craig!? Strange things start to happen throughout this day, and no one has seen Craig...

Episode 10 Father & Son, Oh Sheeeiit! Here comes a conference.

We spend time with Matt and Craig, working at the farm and keeping it all in the family. The crew has a HUUUUGE Cannabis conference to go to, but first PW has to pick which sales member goes with him!? That starts a fierce competition between the whole sales team! They know the one who goes gets to expand their network thus their net worth.

Episode 11 Glengarry Glen Ross

We meet Moe, who is supposed to be a top sales guy, lots of action, nice guy, but can't close a deal. This episode concentrates on the sales team and growing the sales efforts of KANNABIZ MONKEEZ. It's a three-headed race, Eddie, Moe, and the new girl. Things get heated à la Selling Sunset.

Episode 12 Attack of the Killer Clones

We meet Dillon and Kelsey. Dillon specializes in cloning cannabis strains which is REAL science. Dillon, who is a very OVERLY chill and relaxed 6'4" giant of a guy. Not sure what PW thinks about the lack of energy and enthusiasm. His girlfriend is Kelsey, who is the company nerd, social media, lifestyle, and apparel manager for KANNABIZ MONKEEZ, and coined the phrase "Business B4 Boyfriends!" To clone or not to clone is never the question.

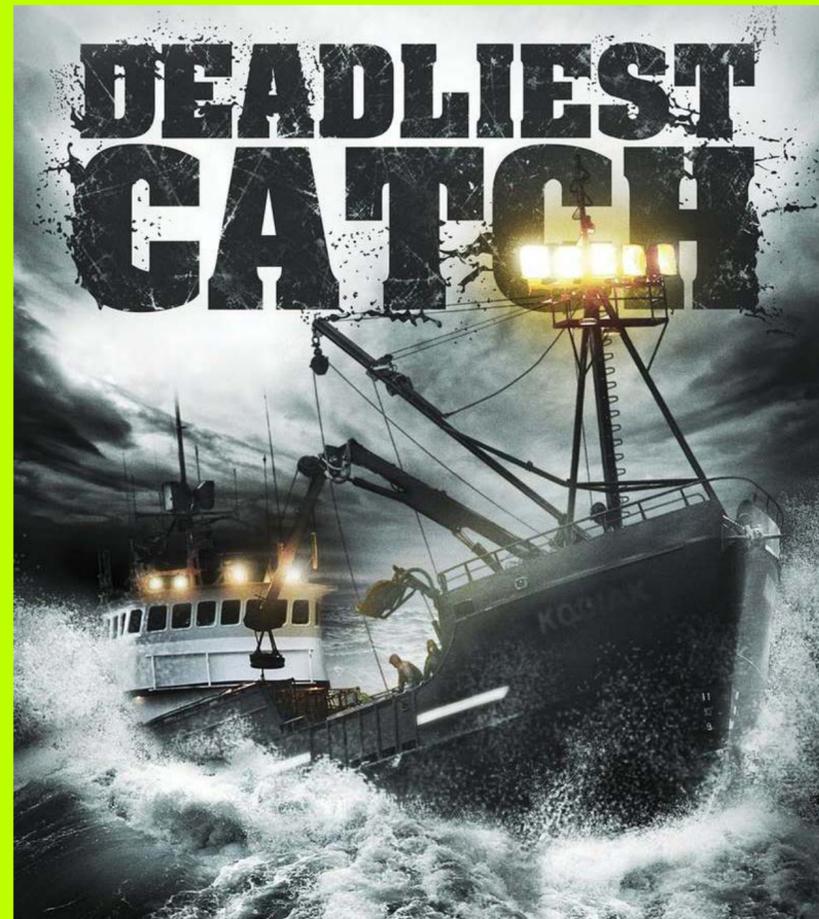

Episode 13 Season Finale - Looks like we made it. . . Maybe not.

PW and KATYWOOD have a blowout argument, and she's upset that he has to constantly go to the farm leaving her alone with the three kids. We see little Pauliewood playing on the home cell phone and putting it on airplane mode! PW keeps trying to get a hold of KATYWOOD to make up and talk through the problems. PW is slated to launch the mega strain called 'Big Gigantic' named after his favorite EDM band. He loses track of time, but he keeps calling, and it keeps going straight to voicemail. PW races home when he's done walks into the door, and... empty house, they are not home....
